Data sheet

PYSUITE Access Management Software

Article No.: PYSUITE

The Access Management Software provides seamless monitoring and documentation of locking operations for the PYLOCX system.

Properties

— Management software for user and profile management, assigning locking authorizations, generating one-time codes, setting time restrictions, configuring and synchronizing keys and locks.

Functional description

The software can be used to assign locking authorizations and generate one-time codes.