

Steel tape roll, blank, 80 mm

Article No.: V05400050

Our high-quality hinge rollers (hinges) offer maximum stability and a longer service life for door systems that have to withstand particularly high demands. They are ideal for insert parts in security-relevant areas such as critical infrastructures and are designed to function reliably and with low maintenance, even with intensive use. With precise workmanship and robust material selection, our hinge rollers guarantee smooth and secure door movement. Rely on quality that combines toughness and durability to protect your systems safely.
